DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 9, line 2, the phrase "the pouch" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kogler, U. S. Patent 367,427 in view of Adams, U. S. Patent 4,542,826.

With respect to claim 1, Kogler teaches a novelty bag and clock combination. Adams teaches bag made of flexible transparent plastic material. The exterior of the bag provides space for advertising material, slogans, trademarks, logos, or the indicia. (See column 4, lines 18-20 and 48).

With respect to claims 2, 8, and 24 since the applicant does not teach that a digital clock solves any stated problem or is for any particular purpose, it appears that using any suitable clock would perform equally well in determining the time of day.

Art Unit: 3611

With respect to claims 3, 9, and 23 the bag taught by Kogler teaches pair holes or opening on opposing sides of the bag for the insertion of cord handle, wherein the handle can be use to suspend the bag from a support.

With respect to claim 7, the bag taught by Adams teaches side panels 14 secured to one another along three side edges through side panels 16 and bottom panel 18.

With respect to claim 11 and 26, the exterior of the bag provides space for advertising material, slogans, trademarks, logos, or the indicia. (See column 4, lines 18-20 and 48).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4, 5, 10, 11, 21, 22, 25, 27-30 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Amendment

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 7, and 23 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
